

Kazato Research Foundation 11th (FY 2017) Award Ceremony for Kazato Prize and Kazato Research Encouragement Prize

The Kazato Research Foundation (Chairman: Nobutaka Hirokawa) held the 11th (fiscal year 2017) award ceremony for the Kazato Prize and the Kazato Research Encouragement Prize on March 3, 2018 at the Keidanren Kaikan Hall. Prizes were presented to the following four prize winners.

Kazato Prize

Yoshihiko Togawa

Associate Professor

Department of Physics and Electronics

Osaka Prefecture University

[Demonstration and Exploring Functionality of Macroscopic Spin Phase Order Using Transmission Electron Microscopy]

Kenjiro Ono

Professor • Department of Neurology

Showa University School of Medicine

[Elucidation of the Alzheimer's disease pathogenesis by using electron and atomic force microscopies]

Kazato Research Encouragement Prize

Motomichi Koyama

Assistant Professor

Department of Mechanical Engineering, Faculty of Engineering

Kyushu University

[In situ characterization of dislocation motion using electron channeling contrast imaging]

Takanori Onouchi

Senior Assistant Professor

Center for Research Promotion and Support

Fujita Health University

[Correlative Light and electron microscopic studies on novel functions of APC protein in the intestinal epithelium cells]

The award ceremony was well attended, including a representative from President of the Japanese Society of Microscopy (JSM), President of JEOL Ltd., members of JSM and related research institutions, as well as industrial researchers and past recipients of the Kazato Prize and the Kazato Research Encouragement Prize. An award party was held after the award ceremony, providing a valuable opportunity for lively discussion and interaction among participants. The Foundation would like to express its sincere appreciation to all the participants.
